

The BGV Class - Brake Guards Van, No. BGV 643

Body built from scratch from plywood, balsa and cardboard.

An old Black & White photo of BGV 643.

The BTR model of the BGV 643 completed.

Passenger compartment end during build process.

Goods compartment end, scribed balsa siding.

Three quarter view of whole of BGV 643.

The completed wagon ready for work.

Louvres are individual slats of slit pine. Handrails, door handles and hinges, step rungs and running board brackets are brass strips and wire, buffers are buttons glued to corkboard thumb pins, wheels are LGB spoked, bogie frames are USA Trains.
Paint is Humbrol brand applied with brushes.