

The HJP Class, temporary Passenger wagon.

An adaption of a standard BTR HJ wagon resembling the type used on the Goondah Burrinjuck Railway in NSW to access the Burrinjuck Dam construction site.

The floor and frame are slit pine, sole bars, buffer beams and planks before adding side gates and ends.

Made to be similar to the prototype used on the railway to Burrinjuck Dam, NSW

A real wagon converted to carry an Inspection Party along the railway during the construction phase.

The BTR - HJP Class bogie wagon at rear of a typical Goondah Burrinjuck Railway Dam train consist.