

The BTR Station at Purgatory Scrub

The model is a much foreshortened version of this style of QLD railway station building.

The shell is made of 8mm plywood.

Doors and Windows were fabricated from Styrene.

Profiled styrene wall cladding is glued to plywood.

Corrugated roofing sheets glued on.