

The BTR Station Building at Shenanigan's Wharf

The shell for this model is made from 8mm plywood. That was covered with profiled styrene sheets.

Holes ready to start fret work.

Doors and Windows have been fretted out.

Profiled styrene sheet glued to plywood.

Plywood roof done, first coat paint to clapboards.

Corrugated roofing sheets glued on.

Trim work finished and painted.

The BTR Station Building at Shenanigan's Wharf

The completed model set up on Garden Railway ready to serve the people and goods traffic.

