

The BTR – Tabletop Station

The quarter scale trestle bents, corbels and girders support the station precinct at TABLETOP Station

Four tracks run through the station, one of which services the Wharf behind the shrub on right.

The BTR – Tabletop Station

This Station has a sub-terranean concourse and booking office / station masters office.

Passengers come up the stairs onto the platform at the left end of the covered station platform.

The station building model is built on a plywood core, roofing is profiled styrene.

Passing Goods train Guards Brake Van checks in with Station Master then departs for the Coast.