

<http://www.ct.gov/dotinfo/cwp/view.asp?a=2183&Q=295632&dotinfoNav>

Even though the $2 taxi fee was cancelled almost two years ago, the sign at the Taxi Stand still warns of the charge. How many unsuspecting visitors have paid the fee without knowing?

Burned out lights in old garage.

Faded stop “signs” on pavement in old garage are an accident waiting to happen. These need to be repainted and accompanied by real, metal, red stop signs.

Throughout old garage there are deep “divots” in the concrete floor, some showing rusted rebar. Is this building safe?

Pigeons and their droppings are a nuisance... and a public health hazard.

Photos by JIM CAMERON

July 5, 2006